As a reseller of our products, you are an independent contractor and not our employee.

You are responsible for collecting any applicable sales taxes from your customers.

We agree to sell you our products at 20% off listed retail prices. 20% does not apply to sale prices.

No discount on set up and shipping charges; just the product itself. We will clarify these amounts on every quote request you send to us. Of course, you are free to charge your customer whatever final pricing you choose.

You may use any graphics or product descriptions from our site; however, you may not use our company name in any of your literature or marketing efforts, as this will be your own business.

Please tape a copy of your state resale certificate below or fax it as a second page with this application. This is required in order to receive the 20% discount on purchases.

Thank you!
